COURSE INFORMATION

Gaelic Learners, National 3

The aim of the course is to encourage communicative competence in Gaelic.

The course will consist of two sections:

- Understanding Language
- Using Language

Pupils will develop the skills of Listening and Talking and Reading and Writing which will allow them to:

- understand written and spoken Gaelic within a range of specified contexts: Society, Learning, Culture and Employability,
- apply and adapt familiar language in written and spoken Gaelic to make themselves readily understood

Assessment:

- This course will be formally assessed by teaching staff using resources provided by SQA in the skills of Listening, Talking, Reading and Writing.
- Pupils must pass one assessment in each skill.
- There is no external assessment of this course and therefore no exam as part of the SQA diet.
- Regular formative assessment will continue.
- Listening and Talking will be assessed through role play/ transactional tasks/ group discussions and/or conversations between pupil and teacher.
- Reading and Listening will be assessed through pupils' responses to written and spoken texts in Gaelic.
- Writing will be assessed regularly, with pupils preparing a selection of pieces, which may include simple reports, reviews or informative texts.

Progression Pathway:

Pupils who attain National 3 may be able to progress to National 4. Pupils are encouraged to discuss their progress with the Languages' Department.

Resources:

- Pupils have access to core vocabulary and notes in the form of booklets linked to a range of topic.
- Audio files to assist with the learning of vocabulary are also available online.
- Links to useful websites are shared with pupils. Such as LearnGaelic
- Traditional dictionaries and grammar reference books are supplemented by online versions.
- Access to a range of websites allows up-to-date topics to be studied for personal interest and enjoyment e.g. current stories in the news.
- The invaluable resources all around in the community i.e. speakers of the language.
- BBC Bitesize has been updated in line with National Courses.
- Valuable educational material available on www.bbc.co.uk/alba.
- Free access to Gaelic as is spoken by proficient speakers of the language is available through the Gaelic television channel BBC Alba and Radio nan Gàidheal.

Hints for success:

- Regular learning, revising and applying of key points of vocabulary and grammar is essential in order to make progress in any language.
- Regular completion of homework of all kinds is essential.
- Recognition of the invaluable resources available in the community i.e. speakers of the language.
